

NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1883.

Rev. A. W. Westgate has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Congregational church of Alpena.

Albert Hayden takes charge of F. M. Sammons' livery stable. When you want a ride give him a call.

The experience, skill and success of Wm. Spencer in feeding and caring for the wants of people makes his hotel the popular house of Michigan.

J. H. Kintz goes to Chicago to purchase horses. He knows a good horse when he sees it, and when he returns look out for some fine animals.

Col. H. G. Davis was appointed one of assessors by council, at the special meeting Thursday night, in place of Wm. F. McDonald, declined. The appointment is a good one.

The Cheboygan News Company have disposed of their stock and business to Wm. T. Vanderbilt who continues the business at the same stand, where he will be glad to see his friends and supply their wants.

R. J. Cram informs us that Capt. Lockwood recently stationed at Grand Rapids in charge of the Western Michigan district of harbor improvements, temporarily succeeds Major F. U. Farquhar, deceased, at Detroit.

The Congregational Sunday school have made arrangements for an excursion on the steamer Flora next Friday. The children of the school will be given a free trip and only fifty cents for round trip for others. All go and have a good time.

Thursday evening three boys in a boat in the river, in front of J. E. Nichols' residence, capsized and found the water wet. Two of them could swim, and got ashore. The third, unable to swim, mounted the boat and yelled murder.

Lorenzo Backus has the foundation in for his new block. The front of his two rooms, we understand, is to be of the same style as Dr. Gerow's. This will give Cheboygan one of the finest blocks in town, the four rooms being in one block.

Sheriff Harrington took an insane man to the Pontiac asylum this week, and had an interesting time with him. The man was very refractory and caused much trouble. At Bay City it required the assistance of several men to get him out of the car.

For the greater part of the time the past two weeks, the prevailing winds have been from the south, and as a consequence the water in the harbor has been unusually high, so much so that the roads near the water works have been for a portion of the time overflowed.

The Examining Board for pensions had light business Wednesday, only one applicant put in an appearance. They have written to Washington requesting that examinations be held only once a month, as previously was the case, instead of weekly as now under the late order.

The weather Thursday evening was not very favorable for a successful strawberry and ice cream festival, but the attendance at the Town Hall was sufficient to afford the "Aftermath" ladies a handsome profit on their venture. The cream was excellent, the berries luscious, and the ladies handsome and attentive.

Wm. F. McDonald visited his farm up Black river, the first of the week the first time for about a month, and says he was greatly surprised at the growth of grain in that region. At his previous visit he says the spring wheat was just fairly up, and now it is heading out. He brought down some specimens of his winter wheat, and the heads are large and well filled. He and others are of the opinion that his winter wheat will yield 40 bushels to the acre. He reports the farmers of that section making extensive and permanent improvements. Quite a number of nice residences being built by different farmers.

When scoundrels pool their issues and concentrate their consummate ignorance in unwittingly indulging a ribald laugh over what is proper, in order to direct attention from defect and failure, and expect persons to join the laugh, it is placing a low estimate upon their intelligence and morals, that will not win, though fools boast of being walking encyclopedias, monopolizing all dictionaries, and understanding all knowledge ancient and modern. The world believes in producers, and Charlatans incapable of producing literary work of merit can quote, repeat, reiterate, and idiotically smile over what others "read, mark and inwardly digest." The public control the press, and one of the most encouraging signs of the times is that the people want sensible, practical and respectful thought in papers, that is helpful to a better and nobler life.

Telephone your orders to the TRIBUNE office for job work.

Gregory Brothers' Aggregation next Thursday. Four shows in one.

Thirty-eight orders from government to examine so many applicants for pensions.

Mollie Harris, the handsome little Cheboygan mare, won the "Consolation" race at Big Rapids Thursday.

Levi L. Barbour, member state board corrections and charities yesterday inspected our jail and poor house.

All who enjoy fine music should improve the opportunity which will be afforded them at the coming concert.

Ithamar Haskins, of this county, has just established his claim for a pension and will receive back pay amounting to about $1,100.

Cheboygan is certainly not lacking in musical talent, of which fact our citizens will have an opportunity to judge at the concert to be given about the 24th inst.

Some of our best local talent has consented to entertain our citizens with a concert about the 24th inst. The programme will be well selected, and cannot fail to please.

The enterprising ladies of the M. E. Church had a regular Jumbo excursion to Spectacle reef last night, in which everything was splendid, netting the ladies about $135, and everybody is glad.

Fountain Hose Co. requests us to call the attention of the village council to the condition of the approach to the building in which the hose cart is kept, making it very difficult to either get the hose cart in or out, and in case of fire causing considerable delay in their getting out. Gentlemen of the council give this matter your earliest attention and see that the difficulty is remedied.

The cable between Mackinac Island and St. Ignace, connecting our neighbors of the Island with the outer world, was laid at 10:30 yesterday morning. Mr. Corbett, superintendent of the division established the office on the island in Todd's drug store. The St. Ignace end is in the Western Union office at that place. The cable is in fine working order. Mr. Corbett passed down on the train last night for Detroit.

W. S. Humphrey attended the races this week at Big Rapids. In the 2:30 race, Tuesday, his mare, Mollie Harris, contested with Little Bill, Mollie Middleton and other celebrated horses, and won third money. He says Mollie is in excellent condition. She will not trot in any race until the 31st when she enters the Marshall course. He tried hard to get up a race for her on the Cheboygan track, to be trotted in the interim, but failed.

At ten o'clock to-day fire broke out in one of Will Smith's houses near the mill, occupied by S. Jarvis. The building was destroyed; loss, a few hundred dollars. In a few moments after the alarm the firemen had taken their hose at the extreme end of the water pipe, over a mile on Main street and attached it to a hydrant on the corner of Main and Taylor streets, laid 1,600 feet of hose, and threw a 1½ inch stream with effect. Pressure at water works 90 lbs; water lowered in reservoir 3 feet; time, one hour.

A Fact.

Anticipation is changed to possession, and Cheboygan has a telephone to talk for it; and according to the law that helps those who help themselves, the TRIBUNE was the first to receive an instrument, numbered 1, and from the editor's office the first message that blushing trembled over the wire to the central office was the following:

"God hath wrought all things well, peace on earth, good will to every human being. Long live Cheboygan as the reigning city of Northern Michigan."

To this the reply was as follows:

"So say we all." Before long the instrument got down to business and declared the Republicans would win in '84, that the TRIBUNE had never failed to be out on time since born, and that the best place to get job printing was at the TRIBUNE office, where the gentlemanly and efficient master printer, D. P. McMullen was manager of the department.

Gregory Brothers' great International show next Thursday. See large bills for particulars.

A Card.

I wish to inform my friends and patrons that I will hold my next social hop at my Hall on Thursday evening of next week, July 19th.

ROBERT S. SWEET.

A waterfall has been discovered on Cowlitz river in Washington territory which is 1,500 feet in height, and another exists near the head of the Nooksack river which is 475 feet high. If so, that territory can claim the highest waterfalls in the world.

E. NELSON went by rail to Detroit yesterday.

A. R. THAYER visited Detroit this week on business.

ROBERT BAXTER, and friend J. F. Cole, of Detroit, are visiting the family of C. S. Ramsay.

R. GLAZIER raises strawberries measuring 6½ inches in circumference, and weighing 1¼ oz.

MRS. L. C. VEEDER and children returned home last week from an extended visit in the southern part of the state.

ALPHEUS GOULDEN arrived from Port Huron on the Atlantic Tuesday morning and has been spending the week in visiting his friends.

JAMES F. MOLONEY visited Mackinac, St. Ignace, Harbor Springs and Petoskey recently, and says for business activity Cheboygan leads them all.

ROY J. CRAM spent Wednesday in the village on his way to Hay Lake, St. Mary's river, to look after the dredging for which his firm has a contract.

MESSRS PEARSON AND STARKE, local inspectors of steamboats for this district arrived in the village last evening, and are busy to-day inspecting Cheboygan steamers.

MRS. C. A. GALLAGHER, returned home Wednesday on the City of Cleveland, much improved in health, which will rejoice her numerous friends. Con. is himself once more.

W. W. STROHN left on Champlain for Oconomowoc, thence to California, and New Mexico, and will get around to Cheboygan in about six weeks.

REV. W. W. RAFTER, formerly rector of the Episcopal church of Cheboygan, now stationed at Mt. Clemens, arrived in the village on the City of Cleveland Wednesday morning, to renew acquaintances. He was looking well.

MRS. C. W. FARR returned from a delightful visit to Detroit last Saturday, attended church Sunday, and on Monday assumed her position at the switch board as manager, having profited with instruction at the Detroit central office.

THEODORE YORK has been employed by R. J. Cram to look after the business of Carlin, Stickney & Cram at Hay Lake, where their dredges are at work. He left with Mr. Cram for that point Thursday morning. We hope he may return to Cheboygan.

JAMES F. MOLONEY, started on Sunday for a three day's tour of the adjacent towns of Northern Michigan, and says without any doubt that Cheboygan is the best and will ever remain so, showing an increasing ascendancy in her favor each year. Moloney is reputed to have good judgment.

HAVING defended the action of Gov. Butler in his investigation of the Tewksbury alms house, we are glad to see good results, not only in Massachusetts, but elsewhere, arising from the exhibit of inhuman atrocities committed by appointed, commissioned guardians of the poor and helpless, upon these weak ones they promised to care for and protect. Butler has been condemned, criticised, and ridiculed by his own state, and by numerous newspapers, but he has fearlessly done his duty, served humanity, and won the emphatic popular approval, while his opponents have been worsted and silenced. The day is past for ostracising good actions because the performer is a Democrat; Butler is as thoroughly endorsed by the people in his good deeds wrought since governor as he was when he enforced cleanliness, and discipline upon Democrats in New Orleans. It is supremely silly and wicked to withhold support from good deeds done by some one against whom there is prejudice. In working for humanity there should be no prejudice, and whoever works for the downfall of petty tyrants, the displacement of mean men, the revoking of inhuman customs and the well being of the people, should receive the unqualified support of every newspaper and well-meaning person in the land. Let Massachusetts and every other state learn better than to starve her poor, then skin them and tan their hides, to the lasting disgrace of civilization.

Gov. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, has sent in 60 vetoes and isn't through yet. Venezuela suffers from locusts; vegetation in the neighborhood of Moron destroyed by them in one night.

The delivery of money orders to the Louisiana lottery company has been ordered discontinued by the postmaster general.

The European press bitterly denounces the English authorities for the unsanitary condition of those portions of Egypt where the cholera is now raging. For months it is said, the stench at Damietta has been apparent at a distance of ten miles, and when cholera broke out the inhuman English simply threw a cordon about the city and imprisoned the plague stricken inhabitants. The death rate is said to be 120 per day.

The last spike driven on the now nearly completed Northern Pacific railway will be gold and the sledge that drives it of silver, with an ebony handle. President Villard will do the pounding.
